1. Write a stage commentary indicating exactly what you want to hear announced about yourself and your outfit while modeling on stage. The commentary should be written in the third person and should include your name, county, age, features of the outfit that audience members can see from a distance, important lessons learned in developing or selecting the outfit, and clothing-related and/or educational goals for the future. Be brief and concise; limit of 100 words. Additional helpful hints for writing a stage commentary can be found by reading 4H 2801 Writing a Clothing Event Commentary https://store.extension.iastate.edu/product/15838.

2. What goal did you set for the clothing event? Did you achieve your goal?

3. What kind of care does this outfit require?

4. What garment type did you choose (athletic wear, formal wear, everyday wear, costume)? Where did you plan to wear this outfit when you decided to purchase or sew it?

5. Describe the accessories you selected and explain why you selected them.

6. What other items in your wardrobe can you wear with this outfit?

7. How many times in a year do you expect to wear this outfit?

8. FOR INTERMEDIATES ONLY:
Are the costs and care required for this outfit reasonable?

9. FOR INTERMEDIATES ONLY:
Why is the fabric, fit, or construction of this outfit right for this activity or occasion?

10. FOR INTERMEDIATES ONLY:
Name one design principle (rhythm, emphasis, proportion, balance, unity) and element (shape/form, color, texture, line) used in your outfit. For more information, see 4H 313 Exploring the Elements and Principles in Clothing https://store.extension.iastate.edu/product/262.
