

Clover Kids Department

1. This class is for youth in grades K-3rd in organized Polk County Clover Kids Groups. See Exhibit Building Rules #1
2. These classes are open classes. No premiums paid. A participation ribbon will be awarded.
3. All fair entries including Open Livestock are to be made in FairEntry (<http://polkcountyfair.fairentry.com>) before or on July 1 by 11:59 pm. No Paper forms will be accepted.
4. Late entries can be made for 2 business days following July 1. A $50.00 per day fee will be assessed for late entries. After the 2-day late registration period, youth must contact the Fair board President to attend the Fair board meeting and ask permission to exhibit at the fair. Upon the Fair board's decision, a final fee will be decided.
5. All late entries must be filled out in the office. Late entries must be paid in cash or check.
6. Youth should bring their exhibit(s) on Saturday, from 8:30 AM - 2:00 PM an optional interview will be available with a caring adult in the show and tell fashion.
7. Youth may enter class CK1 once. Multiple exhibits may be shown, but youth will only receive one participation ribbon for the entire grouping. Youth may display their exhibit(s) in a display box or container, but it is not required. Exhibits may be anything that the youth has made while at a club meeting and/or anywhere else.
8. Larger posters may be used as decoration in the display area. The display should be the result of participation at a meeting or activity of their Clover Kids Group. (No live animals please.)
9. Polk County Master Gardeners are sponsoring "Bucket of Live Flowers" where youth can exhibit flowers in a container of their choice. Flowers can be purchased or grown by the Clover Kid member. The optional interview will take place with a caring adult in the show and tell fashion.
10. All entries that stay must remain on exhibit until release time of 4:00-5:00 PM Thursday. If you cannot be there to pick up your exhibit, arrange for a family member, friend, or leader to get your exhibits.

Clover Kids Educational Presentation

1. An Educational Presentation is defined as any presentation that teaches or communicates a process, a fact, or an idea, through a showing and telling process to gain the desired response from an audience.
2. This presentation may be by demonstration, talk with visuals, skit, panel discussion, dialogue, or any method desired to best get the educational subject matter taught to the audience.
3. The presentation is given by one member.
4. The topic of the presentation should determine its length but should not exceed 5 minutes.
5. Food products must be unquestionably safe to eat when they are used in a presentation. Any exhibit considered to be or portray a food safety risk will not be accepted, judged, or displayed.
6. Judging of presentations will take place at Communication Event Day at the fair please check fair schedule. A schedule will be sent to each entrant.
7. This is a non-competitive event. The participant will receive a Clover Kids Ribbon. A judge will give feedback on the following:
 - a. Topic Appropriateness
 - b. Volume and expression
 - c. Visuals relevant to the topic
 - d. Knowledge of the topic
 - e. Organized presentation
 - f. Response to questions

Clover Kids Working Exhibit

2. Working exhibits provide an opportunity for Clover Kids to communicate, interact with, and teach an audience informally and experientially.
3. Food products must be unquestionably safe to eat when they are used in a working exhibit. Any exhibit considered to be or portray a food safety risk will not be accepted, judged, or displayed.
4. Judging of Working Exhibits will take place at Communication Event Day at the fair please check fair schedule. A schedule will be sent to each entrant.
5. This is a non-competitive event. The participant will receive a Clover Kids Ribbon. A judge will give feedback on the following:

- a. Topic Appropriateness
- b. Volume and expression
- c. Visuals relevant to the topic
- d. Knowledge of the topic
- e. Organized presentation
- f. Response to questions

Share the Fun

1. Share-The-Fun performances must not exceed six minutes in length.
2. Skits, songs, stunts, short one-act plays, dance, and other entertainment will be acceptable. All performances must be appropriate for presentation to a general audience.
3. If the entry is a group entry, only one entry needs to be made, and the entry fee needs only be paid once. Please note the number of participants and the grades of those participants on that entry.
4. All participants must be present at 6:00 pm and remain throughout the entire program.
5. Youth may only compete in one Share the Fun Act per year.
6. Judging of Working Exhibits will take place at the Share the Fun Event at the fair please check fair schedule. A schedule will be sent to each entrant.
7. This is a non-competitive event. The participant will receive a Clover Kids Ribbon.

Class Number and Description

CK 1	Clover Kid Exhibit
CK 2	Bucket of Live Flowers- Sponsored by Polk County Master Gardeners
CK 3	Educational Presentation
CK 4	Working Exhibit
CK 5	Share the Fun